

Sample Title Page

Orthosteric and Allosteric Probes for Cannabinoid Receptors

by Ritesh B. Tichkule

B. Tech. in Chemical Engineering, Nagpur University
M.S. in Chemistry, Texas A & M University

A dissertation [thesis] submitted to

The Faculty of the College of Science of Northeastern University in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy [Master of Science]

Month Day, Year of Defense

Dissertation Committee

Alexandros Makriyannis, Chair

Committee Member First & Last Name

Committee Member First & Last Name

Committee Member First & Last Name

Copyright Page (optional)

The candidate may choose to copyright the dissertation or thesis. Information regarding copyright protections and application for copyright may be obtained from the U.S. Copyright Office, +1 (202) 707-3000. As the author of a thesis or dissertation, you may be interested to know that you own the copyright to your work just by virtue of being its author. When uploading your dissertation or thesis to the ProQuest database, you will have the option to ask that ProQuest register the copyright on your behalf. There is a fee associated with this copyright registration. If you choose to copyright your document, you will be responsible for the fee.

Dedication Page (optional)

This page is the customary place for a student to give a special dedication to persons, organizations, or others that provided encouragement and support to the student. The word “Dedication” should be centered on the page without punctuation and text should be below.

Dedication

Acknowledgements Page

Students can use this space to express recognition of and appreciation for any special assistance received during the academic career. This page is obligatory if special permission has been granted to use published or unpublished material. “Acknowledgements” should be centered on the page without punctuation and text should be below.

Acknowledgements

Abstract of Dissertation [Thesis]

The abstract consists of an essay-style summary of the thesis or dissertation, a statement of the experiment or problem, the procedure followed, the results, and the conclusion. The abstract should begin with the words “Abstract of Dissertation” centered on the page.

Abstract of Dissertation

Sample Table of Contents

Table of Contents

Dedication	2
Acknowledgements	3
Abstract of Dissertation [Thesis]	4
Table of Contents	5
List of Figures	6
List of Tables	7
List of Symbols	8
Glossary of Terms	9
Introduction
Chapter 1: Chapter Title	10
Chapter 2: Chapter Title	40
Chapter 3: Chapter Title	80
Chapter 4: Chapter Title	110
Chapter 5: Chapter Title	130
Chapter 6: Conclusions and Recommendations	150
References	185
Appendices	200